Company Policy

Policy : Criteria for Authorization of Shareholders to Nominate Candidates for Director Election

1. Introduction

According to good corporate governance principles for listed companies, shareholders should be allowed to nominate a person to be considered as the Company's director in order to maintain equal and fair treatment to all shareholders. The Company's corporate governance policy has been stipulated. AMR Asia Public Company Limited ("the Company") will provide an opportunity for shareholders to nominate a person to be a director in advance for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. Shareholders' Qualifications

The Company's shareholders who want to nominate a candidate to be considered for election as a director must hold at least 5% of the total voting shares of the Company. Voting by a single shareholder or a combination of several shareholders is eligible. To determine the right to attend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, such shareholders must hold shares continuously for at least 12 months on the date of the nomination of directors in the specified proportion on the date specified in the list of shareholders.

3. Nomination of Directors

3.1 Documents and evidence used for nominating directors

Shareholders who have all the qualifications as listed under No. 2 must complete the nomination form and send it to the Board of Directors together with documentary evidence within the specified time as follows:

3.1.1 Evidence of shareholding from securities company (Broker) or Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd. or a certified copy of the share certificate.

3.1.2 Shareholders identification evidence

- For natural person – a copy of the ID card, government official identification card, driving license, passport (for foreigners), or a valid alien certificate of the shareholder with verified true copy signatures is required. In the case where multiple shareholders nominate a candidate together, they must fill out the "Company Director Nomination Form", sign their name as evidence, and put them together into one set before sending them.
- For juristic person - a copy of the juristic person's certificate, validated for not more than 3 months, certified by an authorized person signing the juristic person with the company's seal (if any), and a copy of the ID card, government official identification card, driving license, passport (for foreigners), or valid alien certificate of the authorized signatory with a signature of the aforementioned name and certification of true copy [by a notary public in the case of a juristic person registered in a foreign country] is required.
